

A Breath of Pine

By Trista Bugbee

Take a deep breath and look around Enjoy the silence
Let your troubles drown

Enjoy an aroma of pine in the crisp cold air
Our family and friends that once were there Are resting peacefully somewhere near Memories of them fill our hearts as We carry them with us throughout the year

As these trees wave in the wind or shimmer on a dark winter night
We look to them and honor our loved ones who have already taken flight

If your tears need to flow or the laughter needs to lift Reach out and absorb those memories Discover peace and tranquility as they fill your mind with comfort and love

Embrace what you have and where you are,
Find serenity as you look for signs of light within the trimmings of the trees or simply within the stars at night

As you take a deep breath and smell the sweet pine, Hold your loved ones near and honor those that have gone before

Look to these trees and relish in a place of peace this year.
